Invinci Corporation Scores Prestigious Property to Manage

Local Company to Manage Historical Commercial Property in Florissant, Missouri

- Florissant, Missouri historical business district's preservation and economic vitality for the 21st century now in scope of locally owned Invinci Corporation.
- St. Louis real estate market now more competitive with splashy growth of upstart Invinci Corporation.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI (December 2, 2019) — Invinci Corporation has entered into an agreement with MJO Properties, LLC to provide property management services for the newly sold five-building complex at the corner of Rue St. Francois & Rue St. Pierre in Florissant, Missouri. The historical property is part of the St. Ferdinand Central Historic District, of which multiple properties are listed on the U.S. Department of Interior's National Register of Historic Places. Current business tenants include Beauty By Design, Salter Enterprises, Blind Corner, HKTC, and Narrow Gauge Brewing Company.

"Invinci Corporation is pleased to deepen our relationship with MJO Properties and to have the opportunity to manage this property. These five commercial buildings offer prestigious business addresses in charming Old Town Florissant. We look forward to raising the visibility and value of the property for the mutual benefit of tenants, patrons, and the new property owner," said Michael Harry, President at Invinci Corporation.
